September 15, 1930 - April 16, 2019

It is with great sadness that we report the passing of Patricia Lordon on Wednesday, April 16. Patricia had been suffering with heart problems and passed away in her sleep.

Everyone who was blessed to know her enjoyed her strength, her sassy humor and commitment to life and love of country. Patricia adored her son and his family and spent many wonderful holidays with them.

Services were held 4/26 at the Boulder Veterans Cemetery where Patricia was buried with her husband. A celebration of life will be held Saturday, May 11, 2019, Aria Resort - Joshua 5 room 11:00AM to 1:00 PM. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations in her name to St. Judes Research Hospital, her favorite charity.

IN CELEBRATION OF MEMORIAL DAY

The history of Memorial Day 2019 dates back to the American Civil War. It started as an event to honour soldiers who had died during the war. It is said to be inspired by the way people in the Southern states honoured the dead. The original national celebration of Decoration Day took place on 30 May 1868. There was over twenty four cities and towns across the United States that claim to be the birthplace of Memorial Day. Waterloo (New York) was officially declared the birthplace of Memorial Day by President Lyndon Johnson in May 1966. In the late 19th century, the holiday (previously known as Decoration Day) became known as Memorial Day and was expanded to include the deceased veterans of all the wars fought by American forces. Originally, the holiday used to be celebrated on May 30, regardless of the day of the week that it fell on. In 1968, the Uniform Holidays Bill was passed and as a result the day changed.

Traditions of Memorial Day

Traditionally Memorial Day is viewed as a time of honour and remembrance. Throughout the United States it is common to visit cemeteries, particularly military ones, and decorate graves of the deceased with flowers, small flags and wreathes. Other common traditions of Memorial Day 2019 that are still practiced today include the raising the U.S. flag quickly to the tops of flagpoles, slowly lowered to half-mast, and then it is raised again to full height at noon. The lowering of the flag at half-mast is meant to honour the fallen soldiers who have died for their country over the years. While re-raising the flag is meant to symbolize the resolve of the living to carry on the fight for freedom so that the nation's heroes will not have died in vain. There are thousands of Memorial Day 2019 parades all across the country in cities small and large.
